

Lotta St Joan

Lena Minder

Olivia Void

Mone

are sirens unleashed

a berlin based music group of female singer-songwriters

Sirens Unleashed is a music group founded by the musicians Olivia Void, Mone, Lena Minder and Lotta St Joan. Four women. Four voices. Sometimes alone, sometimes together, they enchant with songs about longing, passion, pain and of course - love. On the night, many a heart will be broken, but only to carefully piece them back together again.

the sirens are

olivia void

OLIVIA VOID is a Berlin based experimental art pop musician. Driven by the idea to use her unique voice in ever new and unexpected ways, Void has been compared to artists like Anohni and Björk. Effortlessly, Void refuses to settle on just one genre and is constantly searching for new influences. Void's highly memorable performances are marked by the absolute need to express herself in sound. Embedded in a slightly psychedelic dream land, her voice ranges from soothing frailty to rumbling depths. In her very own poetry, she talks about inner struggles, close relationships, and the society we live in.

LENA MINDER left her hometown of Zurich, Switzerland in 2017 and moved to Berlin after finishing her studies in music school. She has toured extensively in Germany and Switzerland, performing numerous concerts, including many festivals and also as a support act of international artist (such as Luka Bloom, Sarah Klang, Tyler Ward). Her audiences have always been fascinated by her warm voice and captivating stage presence, She describes her style as «Nostalgic Pop» experimenting with vocal harmonies, textures and acoustic loops.

«Lena Minder is a gal with a mission. She's a songstress with a burgeoning desire and passion for her words.

lena minder

mone

Sweet and vicious honesty. MONE provokes and soothes in the same breath. She's been called the lovechild of Fiona Apple and Tom Waits for her raw, emotional songs and unique vocal sound. Rooted in folk music but influenced by many artists, from Nina Simone and Leonard Cohen to The Dresden Dolls and Kate Bush, Mone fuses more traditional genres with the firm confidence of avant-garde music.

The Berlin-based multidisciplinary artists released her debut album 'Crocodile Kisses' and the accompanying artbook, filled with photos, sketches and texts in 2021. Her second album 'Darling, Thief' is set for release in Oktober 2023.

LOTTA ST JOAN is the modern folk singer-songwriter who has been composing, producing and performing her songs since 2019. Her music is reminiscent of classic folk greats such as Joni Mitchell and Joan Baez, while also allowing for contemporary influences.

In January 2021, Lotta released her self-produced debut album "HANDS", firmly establishing herself in the Berlin folk scene. The album received positive reviews from Deutschlandfunk Kultur, RadioEins, Radio Fritz, Folk Radio, Music Reviews and many more.

During 2021 Lotta St Joan wrote her sophomore album, which was produced in 2022 at The Famous Gold Watch Studio by Cameron James Laing.

Lotta St Joan has been part of the Berlin-based label collective The Famous Gold Watch Records since October 2020.

lotta st joan

